

GRoW – Water as a Global Resource Midterm Conference

Overview of the funding measure

Dr. Leif Wolf Romy Durst

Project Management Resources and Sustainability, PTKA

Saalbau Gallus, Frankfurt a.M. February 20th, 2019

www.bmbf.de

Funding Measure GRoW

"Water as a Global Resource"

Combining global perspectives with local solutions

Goals:

- Using global information and forecasts regarding water resources and water demand for regional and local solutions
- Ensuring transferability of results and concepts
- Providing tools for the implementation of SDG 6

Topics:

- Water governance
- Global water resources
- Global water demand
- > 12 Cooperation projects; 28 Mio €;
  90 German partners, > 40 case studies,

GRoW: Combining global perspectives with local solutions

Methods

Applications

Climate models Hydrological Models Remote Sensing Water Trade Analysis SDG-Progress monitoring Dissemination of best practices

GRoW

GLOBALE RESSOURCE WASSER

United Nations International Organisations National governments Global players

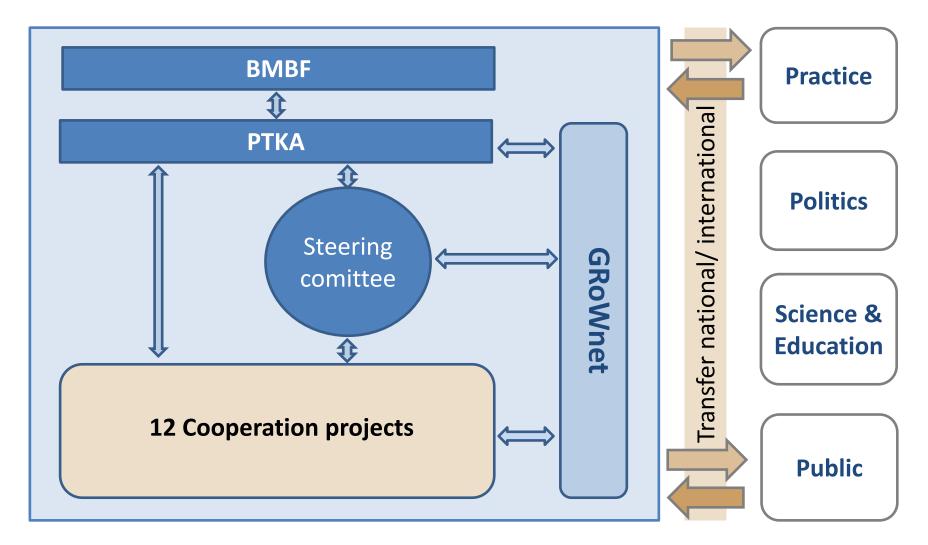

Quality and quantity monitoring Water technology Impact assessment and water footprint Reservoir operation Precision irrigation Improved production Water Stewardship Regulations Water utilities Municipalities Enterprises / Farms Customers

Structure of the funding measure

- Many lessons learned from project implementation
- Time left to react to suggestions made now

Let's have some good discussions!

